

McMurry University

Nobel Prize Laureate Lecture Series

Sponsors:

McMurry Science and Mathematics Advisory Board (SMAB) and McMurry University

Purpose:

The McMurry SMAB desires to encourage students to pursue education in the fields of science and mathematics providing a personally rewarding professional experience that will benefit mankind.

Objective:

Promote McMurry University

Goals:

Encourage high school students to pursue further studies in Science and Mathematics

Motivate university students to achieve their full potential

Expose students to recognized leaders in the fields of Science and Mathematics

Motivate faculty and high school teachers to seek a higher level of instructional excellence

Support Science and Mathematics programs at McMurry University

Educate the community on recent discoveries in Science and Mathematics